Disclaimer

The user may forward, distribute, and/or photocopy documents located on this Web site only if unaltered and complete, including all of their headers, footers, disclaimers, and other information. You may not copy these documents to a Web site. Polymeric Technology does not guarantee the typical (or other) values. Typical values only represent the values one would expect if the property were tested in our laboratories with our test methods on the specified date. Some product properties are not frequently measured, and accordingly typical values are not based upon a statistically relevant number of tests. Specifications are pursuant to Polymeric Technology sampling and testing procedures in effect at the time of production. Analysis may be performed on representative samples and not the actual product shipped. The information in these documents relates only to the named product or materials when not in combination with any other product or materials. We based the information on data believed to be reliable on the date compiled, but we do not represent, warrant, or otherwise guarantee, expressly or impliedly, the merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, suitability, accuracy, reliability, or completeness of this information or the products, materials, or processes described. The user is solely responsible for all determinations regarding any use of material or product and any process in its territories of interest. We expressly disclaim liability for any loss, damage, or injury directly or indirectly suffered or incurred as a result of or related to anyone using or relying on any of the information in these documents. There is no warranty against patent infringement, nor any endorsement of any product or process, and we expressly disclaim any contrary implication.
